Center for Student Integrity

Choosing to be a positive, productive, and committed part of our community.

The Center for Student Integrity (CSI) is the arm of Student Services that works with infractions of the Student Code of Conduct and other laws, policies and expectations that govern student behavior. All members of the Creighton University community are obliged to promote actions consistent with the mission of the institution as, by virtue of their enrollment, students commit to the Student Credo and the Code of Conduct.

Code of Conduct

Choosing to join this community, whether as a student, faculty or staff obligates you to act in a manner that is consistent with these commitments. Joining the Creighton University community evidences your acceptance of these commitments and agreement to strive for their achievement. Commitment to living by these principles means that you will endeavor to:

- 1. Act with professional, academic, and personal integrity.
Consistent with this principle is conduct in accord with the academic honesty policy of the University, other University policies that foster a human community of justice, respect, and concern, and the code of ethics of your foreseen profession. This principle challenges you to shape a personal code of positive values, to live a healthy, balanced lifestyle, and to discover and embrace the responsibilities of your freedom, intelligence, and intrinsic worth.
- 2. Respect and promote the dignity of all persons.
Consistent with this principle is growing in understanding of different cultures and groups, resolving conflicts fairly, appreciating peoples' differences, and seeking truths and values essential to human life and community. This principle challenges you to refrain from actions that threaten or discourage the freedom, personal safety, and respect that all individuals deserve.

- 3. Respect the policies and procedures of the Creighton University community and the rights of its members both on and off campus, as well as the just laws of the civic community and the rights of its members.
Consistent with this principle is the affirmative support for equal rights and opportunities for all members of the Creighton University community, realizing that you are a member of a larger community, understanding societal issues, and being a responsible participant in the civic and Creighton community.
- 4. Support the personal, professional, academic, and vocational development of the members of the Creighton University Community.
Consistent with this principle are actions that are compassionate and considerate of the needs and well being of others and that encourage the development of our moral, spiritual, intellectual, emotional, personal, and vocational abilities.

Request for Discipline Funds

The Center for Student Integrity makes funding available for students and organizations to host programs that are educational in nature. CSI particularly seeks to fund programs that promote an environment where students are encouraged to act with integrity, but all types of programs are eligible for funding.
