Magis Productions works with projects that are for the ‘greater glory . . .’ such as Vision Quest, in which the intention was to give ‘voice’ to Native Americans, to refugees fleeing death or persecution, or to landmine victims by supporting the ban against landmines, and by photographing Jesuits living out their mission of promoting faith and social justice.

Magis [pronounced “màh-gis”], Latin for “more,” taken from the Jesuit motto, “Ad Majorem Dei Gloriam” translates as . . .

“For the Greater Glory of God.”