

All Things Ignatian

Cold Toes, Warm Hearts: A Partnership between Swanson Hall & Siena/Francis House

Presented by Swanson Hall's Residence Hall Council (RHC)

The purpose of Cold Toes, Warm Hearts is to raise money and awareness for the Siena/Francis House and engage in reflective discussions about homelessness and how our community can help. As Swanson's Residence Hall Council, we believe this event showcases our institution's commitment to our Jesuit values.

Sign up today!

3rd Annual Cold Toes, Warm Hearts

When: February 5, 2014

Where: Campus-wide

Donate $5, wear your button, and stop by our hospitality and reflection room in Swanson Hall

*By pledging to wear flip-flops throughout the day and donating $5, you will be participating in our efforts to achieve our goal and make a difference. Throughout the day, stop by the Swanson Hall Fishbowl for refreshments & reflection.
All proceeds will be donated to the Siena/Francis House.*

Our Passion

Siena/Francis House has been Swanson Hall's community partner since 2001. As a residence hall, we have built close ties with Siena/Francis through regular volunteering efforts, donation drives, sending Christmas cards, and securing unused end-of-semester dining dollars. Swanson Hall is proud to partner with Omaha's Siena/Francis House!

Sponsored by the Creighton University Jesuit Community, in association with the Deglman Center for Ignatian Spirituality.