Vice Provost, Dr. Christopher M. Whitt

Diversity and Inclusion in the Apostolic Preferences

Caring for our Common Home

Strengthened by differences, we must share our Earth in a fair and just manner

Showing the way to God

Affirming one another across differences we better pave the way for all to God, including people who do not yet know God

Accompany Young People

Aiming to make a better world with young people hoping they can truly envision a hope-filled future

Walking with the Excluded

Standing in solidarity with those on the margins of society as we fight to eliminate systemic exclusion and marginalization

Institutional Diversity and Inclusion

Inclusive Excellence

Seriously considering the benefits and of diversity and inclusion at each point of decision making and implementation

Diversity and Inclusion

Building an environment with compositions of intersecting identities more reflective of our vision for the future. Aiming for a culture where each individual feels valued as their full and authentic self

Cura Personalis

Educating one another to better value the particular gifts of each individual seeing our diversity as strength

Faith that Does Justice

Seeking the best ways in which our faith may strengthen us in our fight against injustice and marginalization at our university and in our world

We Value:

- Solidarity
- Equity
- Justice
- Inclusion
- Learning
- Openness
- Affirmation
- Welcoming

“We need to make this a better world for all of us. We need to do it together and really respect the fact that not everybody has the same experience in the world”

- Christopher Whitt, Ph.D
