

CREIGHTON UNIVERSITY Global Scholars Program

4 Years. 4 Global Experiences. 4 Outcomes.

Creighton University Global Scholars (CGS) Program is a unique four-year educational and professional development program. It is designed to immerse select students in a variety of cultures for a rich academic, social and service experience to build networks with other students, faculty and alumni from around the world. Through language study, specialized coursework, service-learning, research, internships, and interaction with leaders in the global community, Creighton Global Scholars will become experienced global citizens, ready for employment in international organizations upon graduation.

As a Global Scholar, you will complete four global programs during your time at Creighton. These opportunities are designed to immerse you in a diverse mix of experiences and traditions that provide a unique and rich lens through which to focus your major studies.

As a Global Scholar, you will be well-positioned to live, work, compete and collaborate anywhere in the world as a thoughtful, educated and experienced global citizen.

Your Global Curriculum

International Experience #1 (first semester freshman year)	University of Sydney, Australia	Development of students' personal identities as global citizens.
International Experience #2 (one semester sophomore year)	Encuentro Dominicano, Dominican Republic	Build and broaden student understanding of other cultures and problems around the world.
International Experience #3 (summer between year 2 & 3)	Faculty-Led Program Away (FLPA) (various location options)	Think about, discuss, and explore solutions to global programs through the lens of their major studies.
International Experience #4 (summer between year 3 & 4)	FLPA, Research, or Internship (various location options)	Students complete their capstone which explores a global issue that aligns with their goals and passions.

Freshman Year

Your freshman year will begin in July in Sydney, Australia, where you will receive a globally-recognized education at a top-ranked university, interact with world-class facilities and faculty, and encounter transformative student experiences. The university is located in the heart of the dynamic city of Sydney, minutes from Sydney Harbour. Sydney is also a great base for exploring great Australia and neighboring countries.

Sophomore Year

Your sophomore year, you will spend one semester at the Creighton campus in Santiago, Dominican Republic. The Encuentro Dominicano program embodies the Jesuit mission of promoting justice, striving for excellence, and dedication to the truth. Encuentro centers around building community and service-learning, all while experiencing the rich and vibrant culture of the Dominican Republic.

Summer Travel

The summers after sophomore and junior year, you will participate in a Faculty-Led Program Away (FLPA), Intensive Language Immersion Program, or international internship. These options are designed to meet your educational needs and professional goals.

Global Learning on Campus

You will spend six semesters on Creighton's Omaha campus as an undergraduate. While you are on campus at Creighton, your schedule will include a special companion seminar each semester to continually integrate global learning into your major.

Program Inclusions

Creighton Global Scholars is a unique, globally-focused program that provides four immersion experiences and a plan of study unlike any other in the nation. Participation in the Creighton Global Scholars Program requires a $7,500 annual fee, in addition to tuition, fees, room and board, books, and spending money. The CGS fee was developed to provide full transparency for students and to minimize unexpected expenses.

What's included in the CGS fee?

- International visas
- Flights for program-related travel
- Creighton Global Security Program
- Emergency health insurance while abroad
- Supplemental health insurance
- Program-required vaccinations
- Faculty-Led Program Away fees
- Tuition waiver over 18 credits
- Overseas housing fees
- Individualized academic advising
- Individualized professional development
- Designation as "Global Scholar" on transcripts
- Group program excursions
- On-site orientation & advising
- Re-entry orientation at Creighton
- Specialized workshops
- International guest speakers
- Four-year CGS Seminar Course
- Creighton Global Scholar graduation cords

Program Costs

$7,500 per year, in addition to tuition, fees, room and board. This cost includes all visas, flights, and health insurance involved in program-related travel, as well as specialized advising, workshops, and guest speakers, in Omaha and overseas. Students will be responsible for books and spending money.

Eligibility

Students must qualify to apply by achieving a minimum of a 3.3 weighted high school GPA and either a 23 ACT or 1140 SAT score (neither exam can be superscored).

Due to course requirements and sequencing, only certain majors are eligible to participate in the program. Accounting and direct-entry nursing students are not eligible for the Global Scholars Program. Pre-health students should speak with their admissions counselor about the requirements of the program within a pre-health track.

How to Apply

Step 1

Submit a Creighton University Undergraduate Application and all supporting materials by December 1, 2018.

Step 2

Submit a Global Scholars Program application and all supporting materials by January 4, 2019. You can access the application through your student portal at choose.creighton.edu/status.

Step 3

All eligible applicants are required to complete an interview. Interviews will be conducted on campus during the Special Programs Day held on Sunday, January 27, 2019. Applicants are highly encouraged to attend Special Programs Day. For students who are unable to attend, phone interviews will be available January 14-25, 2019.